

Asparagus Processing Belt

Asparagus processors use these cleats for lining up the product for cutting and packaging. The cleats are soft and hollow, which prevents any bruising or damaging of the asparagus during processing. The cleats can be applied on varied spacing and center distances and are thermo welded to the belt surface.

